Summary of Changes to the Automobile Policy
OFB 8382 12-09

The following items show the recent changes to this policy.

In Definitions, Item 11. “Non-owned auto” is replaced with the following:

11. “Non-owned auto” means any private passenger auto, pickup, van, or trailer, not owned by, nor furnished or available for the regular use by, but while in the custody of or being operated by, you or any family member.

However, “non-owned auto” does not include any vehicle used as a temporary substitute as defined in Item 10.d. above in the Definitions for Your covered auto.

Under Part A – Liability Coverage

The Insuring Agreement is replaced with the following:

We will pay damages for bodily injury or property damage for which any insured person becomes legally responsible because of an auto accident. We will settle or defend, as we consider appropriate, any claim or suit asking for these damages. In addition to our limit of liability, we will pay all defense costs we incur. Our duty to settle or defend ends when our limit of liability for this coverage has been exhausted.

“Insured Person” as used in Part A - Liability Coverage means:

1. you or any family member for the ownership, maintenance or use of any auto or trailer,
2. any person using your covered auto, and
3. any other person or organization for acts or omissions of:
   a. any person covered under Part A - Liability Coverage while using your covered auto, or
   b. you or any family member covered under Part A - Liability Coverage while using any auto or trailer other than your covered auto if the vehicle or trailer is not owned or hired by that person or organization.

But, no person shall be defined as an insured person if that person uses a vehicle without the permission of you or a family member.

In Exclusions, Items 1 and 2 are replaced with the following:

1. We do not provide Liability Coverage for any person:
   a. who intentionally causes bodily injury or property damage;
   b. for damage to property owned or being transported by that person;
   c. for damage to property rented to, or in the care of that person (except damage to a residence or private garage);
   d. using a vehicle without permission granted by you or a family member, or
   e. for bodily injury or property damage for which that person:
      (1) is an insured under a nuclear energy liability policy, or
      (2) would be an insured under a nuclear energy liability policy but for its termination upon exhaustion of its limit of liability.

A nuclear energy liability policy is a policy issued by any of the following or their successors:
(1) Nuclear Energy Liability Insurance Association,
(2) Mutual Atomic Energy Liability Underwriters, or
(3) Nuclear Insurance Association of Canada.

2. Regardless of the Liability Coverage limits shown on the Declarations page for bodily injury or property damage, we do not provide Liability Coverage above the minimum limits required by the financial responsibility law of the jurisdiction in which the accident occurs for:
   a. bodily injury to an employee of that person during the course of employment.
This Exclusion does not apply to bodily injury to a domestic employee unless workers’ compensation benefits are required or available for that domestic employee;
   b. liability arising out of the ownership or operation of a vehicle while it is being used to carry persons or property for a fee. This Exclusion does not apply to share-the-expense car pool;
   c. any person while employed or otherwise engaged in the business or occupation of:
      (1) selling, (4) storing, or (2) repairing, (5) parking
      (3) servicing, vehicles designed for use mainly on public highways. This includes road testing and delivery.

This Exclusion does not apply to the ownership, maintenance or use of your covered auto by:
(1) you,
(2) any family member, or
(3) any partner, agent or employee of you or any family member;

   d. any person maintaining or using any vehicle while that person is employed or otherwise engaged in any business or occupation not described in Exclusion 2.c.

This Exclusion (d.) does not apply to the maintenance or use of a:
(1) private passenger auto,
(2) pickup, truck or van that you own, or
(3) trailer used with a vehicle described in 2.d.(1) or 2.d.(2) above;

   e. bodily injury or property damage arising out of the ownership, maintenance or use of any motorized vehicle in or in preparation for any competitive speed test, race or contest;

   f. bodily injury incurred by you or a family member;

   g. any insured person for the use of your covered auto outside the scope of permission granted by you or a family member.

Limit of Liability is replaced with the following:

Limit of Liability

The limit of liability for “each person” is the most liability coverage we will pay for all damages due to bodily injury to one person in any one auto accident. The limit of liability for bodily injury for “each accident” is the most liability coverage we will pay for all damages for bodily injury to two or more persons in any one auto accident.

The limits of liability shown on the Declarations page for property damage is the most we will pay for all property damage resulting from any one auto accident.

The limits of liability described in this section are the most we will pay regardless of the number of:

   1. insured persons,
   2. claims made,
   3. vehicles or premiums shown on the Declarations page, or
   4. vehicles involved in the auto accident.

Regardless of the limits of liability shown on the Declarations page or elsewhere in this policy, the limits of bodily injury and property damage liability provided by this policy to an insured person other than:

   1. you,
   2. any family member,
   3. any driver listed on the Declarations page, or
   4. any other person or organization liable for the acts or omissions of you or any family member, will not exceed those amounts necessary to satisfy the minimum requirements of the financial responsibility law of the jurisdiction in which the bodily injury or property damage occurs.

Other Insurance is replaced with the following:

Other Insurance

If there is other liability insurance which applies to a loss also covered by this policy, this policy shall be excess to such other insurance.

Under Part B – Medical Payments Coverage

Under Insuring Agreement, “Insured Person” is replaced with the following:

“Insured person” as used in Part B - Medical Payments Coverage means:

1. you or any family member:
   a. while occupying, or
   b. as a pedestrian when struck by, a motor vehicle designed for use mainly on public roads, or a trailer of any type;
      and
   2. any other person while occupying your covered auto.

Other Insurance is replaced with the following:

Other Insurance

If there is other medical payments insurance which applies to a loss also covered by this policy, this policy shall be excess to such other insurance.
Under Part C – Uninsured Motorist Coverage, Changes in General Conditions

General Conditions

Item 1 is replaced with the following:

1. “Insured Person” as used in Part C - Uninsured Motorist Coverage means:
   a. you or any family member,
   b. any person while occupying your covered auto, unless that person owns a motor vehicle subject to the security requirements of the Oklahoma Financial Responsibility Law or financial security under the law of any other state, and
   c. any person entitled to recover damages because of bodily injury to another insured person under 1a. and 1b. above.

But no person shall be defined as an insured person if that person uses a vehicle without the permission of you or a family member.

In Limit of Liability.

Item 1 is replaced with the following:

1. Since only one premium is charged for Uninsured Motorist Coverage, only one limit of Uninsured Motorist Coverage applies. The limit of liability for “each person” is the most Uninsured Motorist Coverage we will pay for all damages due to bodily injury to one person in any one auto accident. Subject to the “each person” limitation, the Uninsured Motorist Coverage limit of liability shown on the Declarations page for “each accident” is the most Uninsured Motorist Coverage we will pay for all damages for bodily injury to two or more persons resulting from any one auto accident.

The limits of liability described in this section are the most we will pay regardless of the number of:
   a. insured persons,
   b. claims made,
   c. vehicles or premiums shown on the Declarations page,
   d. vehicles involved in the auto accident, or
   e. vehicles which are your covered autos.

The following provision is added:

Our Right to Recover from Others

If we make any payment under Uninsured Motorist Coverage:

1. and the insured person to whom payment was made has a right to recover compensatory damages from another, we shall be subrogated to that right, and we shall have the right to pursue reimbursement from that other party to the full extent permitted by Oklahoma law. The insured person shall do:
   a. whatever is reasonably necessary to enable us to exercise our subrogation rights; and
   b. nothing to prejudice our subrogation rights.

2. we retain and claim all our rights of subrogation to the full extent permitted by Oklahoma law. Unless enforcement of our subrogation rights would reduce the amount of Uninsured Motorist Coverage, our subrogation rights shall have priority over the rights of the insured person to be fully compensated or made whole for injury or damages, and in those circumstances the insured person does not have to be made whole before we are entitled to enforce our subrogation rights.

3. and the insured person to whom payment was made recovers compensatory damages from another, the insured person shall hold in trust for us the amount we are entitled to recover pursuant to our subrogation rights, and pay us back that amount.

Changes in General Conditions is replaced with the following:

Changes in General Conditions

Under Part F – General Conditions, the following Conditions are changed for Uninsured Motorist Coverage:

1. Two or More Policies Issued By Us does not apply.
2. The following Condition is added:

Arbitration

a. If we and an insured person disagree whether the insured person is legally entitled to recover damages from the owner or driver of an uninsured motor vehicle or do not agree as to the amount of damages, either party may make a written demand for arbitration. In this event, each party will select an arbitrator. The two arbitrators will select a third. If they cannot agree within 30 days, either may request that selection be made by a judge of a court having jurisdiction. Each party will pay the expenses it incurs and bear the expenses of the third arbitrator equally.

b. Unless both parties agree otherwise, arbitration will take place in the county in which the insured person lives. Local rules of law as to arbitration procedure and evidence will apply. A decision agreed to by two of the arbitrators will be binding.

c. If agreement by arbitration is not reached within three months from the date of demand, the insured person may bring an action against anyone responsible for the use of a vehicle involved in the accident.

Other Insurance is replaced with the following:

Other Insurance

If there is other Uninsured Motorist Coverage which applies to a loss also covered by this policy, this policy shall be excess to such other insurance.

Automobile Policy

Agreement
In return for pre-payment of the premium and subject to all the terms of this policy, we agree with you as follows:

Definitions
The terms defined below appear in bold type throughout this policy.

1. Throughout this policy, "you" and "your" refer to:
   a. The person(s) named on the Declarations page, and
   b. His or her spouse if a resident of the same household.

2. "We", "us" and "our" mean the Company as named on the Declarations page.

3. For purposes of this policy, a private passenger type auto shall be considered to be owned by a person if leased:
   a. under a written agreement to that person, and
   b. for a continuous period of at least 6 months.

4. "Actual cash value" means the amount which it would cost to replace or replace damaged property with material of like kind and quality, less allowance for physical deterioration and depreciation.

5. "Bodily injury" means bodily harm, sickness or disease, including death that results.

6. "Family member" means a person related to you by blood, marriage or adoption who is a resident of your household. This includes a ward or foster child.

7. "Occupying" means in, upon, getting in, on, out or off.

8. "Property damage" means physical damage to, destruction of or loss of use of tangible property.

9. "Trailer" means a vehicle designed to be pulled by:
   a. a private passenger auto, or
   b. pickup, truck, or van.

   It also means a farm wagon or farm implement while towed by your covered auto. This does not include a semi-trailer that, when attached, is supported at its forward end by the fifth wheel device of the truck tractor.

10. "Your covered auto" means:
    a. any vehicle shown on the Declarations page,
    b. any of the following types of vehicles on the date you become the owner:
        (1) a private passenger auto, or
        (2) a pickup, truck, van or trailer, not used in any business or occupation other than farming or ranching.

   This provision applies only if:
   (1) all the vehicles you own or lease are insured with us,
   (2) you acquire the vehicle during the policy period,
   (3) you ask us to insure it within 30 days after you become the owner, and
   (4) you pay any additional premium by the date due.

   If the vehicle you acquire replaces one shown on the Declarations page, it will have the same coverage as the vehicle it replaced.

   If the vehicle you acquire is in addition to any vehicle insured by us, it will have the broadest coverage we now provide you for any vehicle we insure,

   c. any trailer you own while being towed by your covered auto, and
   d. any auto or trailer you do not own while used as a substitute for any other vehicle described in this definition which is out of normal use because of its:
        (1) breakdown, (4) loss, or
        (2) repair, (5) destruction.
        (3) servicing.

11. "Non-owned auto" means any private passenger auto, pickup, van, or trailer, not owned by, nor furnished or available for the regular use by, but while in the custody of or being operated by, you or any family member.

   However, "non-owned auto" does not include any vehicle used as a temporary substitute as defined in Item 10.d. above in the Definitions for Your covered auto.

Part A - Liability Coverage

Insuring Agreement
We will pay damages for bodily injury or property damage for which any insured person becomes legally responsible because of an auto accident. We will settle or defend, as we consider appropriate, any claim or suit asking for these damages. In addition to our limit of liability, we will pay all defense costs we incur. Our duty to settle or defend ends when our limit of liability for this coverage has been exhausted.

"Insured Person" as used in Part A - Liability Coverage means:

1. you or any family member for the ownership, maintenance or use of any auto or trailer,

2. any person using your covered auto, and

3. any other person or organization for acts or omissions of:
   a. any person covered under Part A - Liability Coverage while using your covered auto, or
   b. you or any family member covered under Part A - Liability Coverage while using any auto or trailer other than your covered auto if the vehicle or trailer is not owned or hired by that person or organization.

But, no person shall be defined as an insured person if that person uses a vehicle without the permission of you or a family member.

Supplementary Payments
In addition to our limit of liability, we will pay on behalf of an insured person:

2. premiums on appeal bonds and bonds to release attachments in any suit we defend;

3. interest accruing after a judgment is entered in any suit we defend. Our duty to pay interest ends when we offer to pay that part of the judgment which does not exceed our limit of liability for this coverage;

4. up to $50 a day for loss of earnings, but not other income, because of attendance at hearings or trials at our request; and

5. other reasonable expenses incurred at our request.

   e. for bodily injury or property damage for which that person:
      (1) is an insured under a nuclear energy liability policy, or
      (2) would be an insured under a nuclear energy liability policy but for its termination upon exhaustion of its limit of liability.

A nuclear energy liability policy is a policy issued by any of the following or their successors:
(1) Nuclear Energy Liability Insurance Association,
(2) Mutual Atomic Energy Liability Underwriters, or
(3) Nuclear Insurance Association of Canada.

2. Regardless of the Liability Coverage limits shown on the Declarations page for bodily injury or property damage, we do not provide Liability Coverage above the minimum limits required by the financial responsibility law of the jurisdiction in which the accident occurs for:
   a. bodily injury to an employee of that person during the course of employment. This Exclusion does not apply to bodily injury to a domestic employee unless workers' compensation benefits are required or available for that domestic employee;

f. bodily injury incurred by you or a family member; or

g. any insured person for the use of your covered auto outside the scope of permission granted by you or a family member.

3. We do not provide Liability Coverage for the ownership, maintenance or use of:
   a. any motorized vehicle having less than four wheels, unless specifically described on the Declarations page;
   b. any vehicle, other than your covered auto, which is:
      (1) owned by you, or
      (2) furnished or available for your regular use; or
   c. any vehicle, other than your covered auto, which is:
      (1) owned by any family member, or
      (2) furnished or available for the regular use of any family member.

   However, this Exclusion does not apply to your maintenance or use of any vehicle which is:

   (2) furnished or available for the regular use of a family member.

4. We do not provide Liability Coverage for bodily injury or property damage awards against an insured person in the form of exemplary or punitive damages.

5. We do not provide Liability Coverage for bodily injury or property damage arising out of the transmission of a communicable disease by an insured person.

Limit of Liability

The limit of liability for "each person" is the most liability coverage we will pay for all damages due to bodily injury to one person in any one auto accident. The limit of liability for bodily injury for "each accident" is the most liability coverage we will pay for all damages for bodily injury to two or more persons in any one auto accident.

The limit of liability shown on the Declarations page for property damage is the most we will pay for all property damage resulting from any one auto accident.

The limits of liability described in this section are the most we will pay regardless of the number of:

1. insured persons,
2. claims made,
3. vehicles or premiums shown on the Declarations page, or
4. vehicles involved in the accident.

Regardless of the limits of liability shown on the Declarations page or elsewhere in this policy, the limits of bodily injury and property damage liability provided by this policy to an insured person other than:

1. you,
2. any family member,
3. any driver listed on the Declarations page, or
4. any other person or organization liable for the acts or omissions of you or any family member, will not exceed those amounts necessary to satisfy the minimum requirements of the financial responsibility law of the jurisdiction in which the bodily injury or property damage occurs.

Out of State Coverage

If an auto accident to which this policy applies occurs in any state or province other than the one in which your covered auto is principally garaged, we will interpret your policy for that accident as follows:

If the state or province has:

1. a financial responsibility or similar law specifying limits of liability for bodily injury or property damage higher than the limit shown on the Declarations page, your policy will provide the higher specified limit, or
2. a compulsory insurance or similar law requiring a non-resident to maintain insurance whenever the non-resident uses a vehicle in that state or province, your policy will provide at least the required minimum amounts and types of coverage.

No one will be entitled to duplicate payments for the same elements of loss.

When this policy is certified as future proof of financial responsibility, this policy shall comply with the law to the extent required.

Other Insurance

If there is other liability insurance which applies to a loss also covered by this policy, this policy shall be excess to such other insurance.

   b. for which there is a liability bond or policy at the time of an accident, the liability limits of which are less than the amount of the claim of the person or persons making such claim, regardless of the amount of coverage of either vehicle, or part thereof, in relation to other.

c. for which an insuring or bonding company denies coverage or is or becomes insolvent, or

d. which is a hit-and-run vehicle and neither the driver nor owner can be identified.

However, "uninsured motor vehicle" does not include any vehicle:

a. owned or operated by a self-insurer under any applicable motor vehicle law,

d. that is a crawler or farm-type tractor, farm implement, or, if not subject to motor vehicle registration, that is designed for use principally off public roads and streets.

Exclusions

1. We do not provide Uninsured Motorist Coverage for bodily injury sustained by any person:

   b. if that person was a legal representative settles the bodily injury claim without our consent,
   c. while occupying your covered auto when it is being used as a public or livery conveyance.

   This exclusion (1.c.) does not apply to a share-the-expense car pool or
   d. using a vehicle without a reasonable belief that that person is entitled to do so.

2. We do not provide Uninsured Motorist Coverage for punitive or exemplary damages.

3. This insurance does not apply to the direct or indirect benefit of any insurer or self-insurer under any workers' compensation, disability benefits, or similar law.

Limit of Liability

1. Since only one premium is charged for Uninsured Motorist Coverage, only one limit of Uninsured Motorist Coverage applies. The limit of liability for "each person" is the most Uninsured Motorist Coverage we will pay for all damages due to bodily injury to one person in any one auto accident. Subject to the "each person" limitation, the Uninsured Motorist Coverage limit of liability shown on the Declarations page for "each accident" is the most Uninsured Motorist Coverage we will pay for all damages for bodily injury to two or more persons resulting from any one auto accident.

   The limits of liability described in this section are the most we will pay regardless of the number of:

   a. insured persons,

b. claims made,

d. vehicles involved in the auto accident, or

e. vehicles which are your covered autos.

3. Any amount payable for damages under this insurance shall be reduced by all sums paid by or for anyone who is legally responsible, including all sums paid for the same damages under Part A - Liability Coverage of this policy.

4. Any amount paid under this insurance will reduce any amount an insured person may be paid for the same damages under Part A - Liability Coverage of this policy.

Our Right to Recover from Others

If we make any payment under Uninsured Motorist Coverage:

1. and the insured person to whom payment was made has a right to recover compensatory damages from another, we shall be subrogated to that right, and we shall have the right to pursue reimbursement from that other party to the full extent permitted by Oklahoma law. The insured person shall:

   a. whatever is reasonably necessary to enable us to exercise our subrogation rights; and
   b. nothing to prejudice our subrogation rights.

2. we retain and claim all our rights of subrogation to the full extent permitted by Oklahoma law. Unless enforcement of our subrogation rights would reduce the amount of Uninsured Motorist Coverage, our subrogation rights shall have priority over the right of the insured person to be fully compensated or made whole for injury or damages, and in those circumstances the insured person does not have to be made whole before we are entitled to enforce our subrogation rights.

3. and the insured person to whom payment was made recovers compensatory damages from another, the insured person shall hold in trust for us the amount we are entitled to recover pursuant to our subrogation rights and pay us back that amount.

Changes In General Conditions

Under Part F - General Conditions, the following Conditions are changed for Uninsured Motorist Coverage:

1. Two or More Policies Issued By Us does not apply.

2. The following Condition is added:

   a. if we and an insured person disagree whether the insured person is legally entitled to recover damages from the owner or driver of an uninsured motor vehicle or do not agree as to the amount of damages, either party may make a written demand for arbitration. In this event, each party will select an arbitrator. The two arbitrators will select a third. If they cannot agree within 30 days, either may request that selection be made by a judge of a court having jurisdiction. Each party will pay the expenses it incurs and bear the expenses of the third arbitrator equally.

   b. Unless both parties agree otherwise, arbitration will take place in the county in which the insured person lives. Local rules of law as to arbitration procedure and evidence will apply. A decision agreed to by two of the arbitrators will be binding.

   c. If agreement by arbitration is not reached within three months from the date of demand, the insured person may bring an action against anyone responsible for the use of a vehicle involved in the accident.
