

Bulletin to Insurers

Bulletin #1 states that insurance companies were required to be in compliance with the USA Patriot Act of 2001 by April 24, 2002.

This office has recently been informed that the federal government is currently studying how various financial institutions, including insurance companies, may comply with the Act. This could result in deferring insurers' compliance with the Act for up to six months or to October 24, 2002.
