It has been my great honor to serve the people of Oklahoma for another year. While the state experienced both highlights and heartbreaks, I believe the work our agencies did together truly impacted consumers in a positive way and left the insurance industry in a stronger position.

In accordance with Oklahoma State Statute 36 § 307, it is my pleasure to present to you the Oklahoma Insurance Department's 2013 Annual Report. This report reflects the activities of the department and summarizes the financial disclosure and listing of companies operating in Oklahoma.

Should there be any questions about the content of this report, my staff and I are at your disposal.

The Oklahoma Insurance Department is accredited by the National Association of Insurance Commissioners (NAIC) until 2015.

To achieve this accreditation, the Department must meet stringent national standards that demonstrate financial solvency regulation of insurance companies.

The accreditation principles set by the NAIC allow the Department to better protect consumers and set and maintain the highest standards in financial regulation for Oklahoma's insurance industry. Commissioner Doak and the staff of the Oklahoma Insurance Department view accreditation by the NAIC as an important part of our commitment to the citizens of Oklahoma.

LETTER FROM THE COMMISSIONER

Dear Citizens of Oklahoma,

I want to thank you for allowing me to serve you as Insurance Commissioner. I consider this position a great honor and a privilege. 2013 was a very busy year for the Oklahoma Insurance Department, but it gave us many opportunities to continue our mission of "Protecting Oklahomans."

This past year will definitely be remembered for the May and June tornadoes that left so much devastation across our state. With so many displaced Oklahomans, the OID sped up insurance claims processes by setting up a 24-hour mobile command unit and creating new emergency rules to license the hundreds of catastrophe adjusters arriving in our state. We also manned a consumer assistance booth inside the disaster zone and hosted several town hall meetings to assist those having trouble with their insurance claims.

The OID also focused on expanding its anti-fraud efforts in 2013. We held 7 Senior Fraud Conferences across the state that educated our seniors on the many types of fraud and informed them on ways to protect themselves and their finances. We also created an Anti-Fraud Advisory Board consisting of law enforcement agents, educators, and legislators.

Legislatively, the OID's efforts focused on pro-business and consumer protection initiatives. Some highlights include: HB1792 gives law enforcement the ability to seize license plates from uninsured motorists, SCR26 highlights the rights of insurance consumers, HB1108 makes it easier to start a captive insurance company and SB1062 creates an administrative law system for workers compensation.

All of the efforts from the OID were proudly made in order to live up to our mission of "Protecting Oklahomans." As always, if you ever have any questions or need any assistance, please contact us.

Respectfully,

John D. Doak
Oklahoma Insurance Commissioner

ABOUT COMMISSIONER JOHN D. DOAK

NAIC Committees: Workers Compensation Task Force, Senior Issues Task Force, Antifraud Task Force, Market Information Systems Task Force, Capital Adequacy Task Force, Examination Oversight Task Force, Receivership and Insolvency Task Force, Reinsurance Task Force, Market Regulation and Consumer Affairs Committee, American Indian/Alaska Native Liaison Committee, Consumer Liaison Committee, Earthquake Study Group, Terrorism Insurance Implementation Working Group and Consumer Protection Board of Trustees.

John D. Doak was sworn in as Oklahoma's 12th Insurance Commissioner on January 10, 2011. For the Tulsa native, it was the culmination of a decades-long dream to combine his two passions: insurance and politics.

Doak's interest in politics was piqued during his days at the University of Oklahoma. It was there, during classes taught by former Oklahoma Gov. Henry Bellmon and former State Rep. Neal McCaleb, that Doak first realized his desire to pursue public office. He graduated in 1988 with a Bachelor of Arts degree in political science.

Shortly after graduation, Doak opened his own small business in Tulsa. Over the course of six years, he received numerous awards and commendations for his success. Doak next served as an executive for several insurance firms.

Such diverse experience in the industry, from small business owner to corporate executive, gives Commissioner Doak a unique and broad understanding of how insurance works. He is committed to ensuring that Oklahomans have access to affordable insurance within a competitive, robust market that also helps businesses succeed. Commissioner Doak works hand-in-hand with lawmakers to pass legislation that supports that mission.

Under Doak's leadership, the Oklahoma Insurance Department has taken strides to reduce waste, streamline services, and advocate on the behalf of Oklahoma citizens. His administration's accomplishments include:

- Visiting each of Oklahoma's 77 counties each year he's in office
- Returning the nearly $1 million federal grant for conducting health insurance premium rate reviews
- Returning $17 million to the state Legislature that OID was legally authorized to spend
- Regaining full accreditation for the Oklahoma Insurance Department's Financial Division from the National Association of Insurance Commissioners (NAIC)
- Refocusing the efforts of OID's Anti-Fraud Unit to investigate and actively pursue insurance related crimes, especially white-collar crime and crimes committed against the elderly
- Holding the annual National Tornado Summit and Domestic Insurance Conference

John and his wife, Debby, live in Tulsa with their children, Zack and Kasey.

Dedicated to Service

The incredible devastation to lives and property in Oklahoma from the May 2013 tornado outbreak has drawn the attention of the nation and even the world. The everyday responsibilities of the Consumer Assistance Team have continued while dedicating a great deal of time and effort to helping tornado survivors recover and rebuild. OID's Consumer Assistance Team communicates valuable information directly to disaster victims and is available year-round to Oklahomans who have questions about insurance. The goal of the Division is to serve Oklahoma through education, assistance and protection.

Commitment

From homeowners to renters, college students to retired senior citizens, we are committed to serving YOU. Experienced consumer assistance professionals at the OID have the ability to answer your insurance-related questions or point you in the right direction. There is no request too small or too large. The OID's Consumer Assistance Division is here to serve you.

Education

The Consumer Assistance Division has a wealth of information about insurance-related products. We can help consumers prepare for natural disasters, compare insurance rates, create a home inventory, file a complaint and much more. The information is easy to find on our website www.oid.ok.gov or by calling our Consumer Assistance Division at 1-800-522-0071. Our staff is happy to help consumers get the information they need to make an informed decision about insurance-related products.

Assistance

We assist Oklahoma consumers by investigating complaints filed by consumers against insurance companies. When consumers feel their claim hasn't been handled correctly, they can file a complaint through the Oklahoma Insurance Department. We are their advocate and will do anything we can to make sure they are treated properly. Examples of results after action taken by Consumer Assistance include insurers paying higher claim amounts to policyholders, reducing premiums or reversing denials of coverage.

SUCCESS STORIES:

- The Consumer Assistance Division was contacted by a consumer questioning the rate increase on her individual health policy. After reviewing the policy, it was determined that the consumer was no longer eligible for the policy due to her age. A refund was requested and received by the consumer in the amount of $25,000.
- A man purchased a single-premium whole life policy. The enrollment form of the policy contained an irrevocable assignment of the ownership to the company's funeral trust. Due to limited knowledge of the English language, he did not understand the life insurance he was purchasing and the irrevocable assignment. The company, upon receipt of the inquiry, determined they would provide him with a full refund and cancel his coverage. The refund was for $8,000.00, which is the amount placed in the single premium policy.
- An Oklahoma woman filed an external review request after her insurance company denied her request for a medical procedure. Once her external appeal was deemed valid by the insurance company, an Independent Review Organization (IRO) was chosen for the review. Within 45 days, the denial of her procedure was overturned. The consumer was elated that finally, after several years of needing this surgery, she could begin to live a normal life.

OUTREACH

“Field Representatives are integrated in communities throughout the state. We visit insurance agencies, attend civic club meetings and have informational booths at local trade shows, all to provide important outreach to the people of Oklahoma. Field representatives serve through outreach as an extension of the OID in local communities.”

-Rochelle Covington, Field Representative

FIELD OPERATIONS

The Field Representatives are liaisons for the Oklahoma Insurance Department throughout the state. They work with the Consumer Assistance Division in resolving complaints and assisting consumers, producers and OID-licensed groups with insurance-related issues.

Outreach to all Oklahomans

Field Reps provide a direct link between communities and the Oklahoma Insurance Department. They are strategically positioned across the state to reach as many people as possible. They work to establish relationships with the people they serve by attending community meetings, chamber of commerce luncheons and other events in their assigned area. They work hand-in-hand with consumers, insurance agents, bail bondsman, licensed adjusters, funeral home operators and first responders.

These relationships are particularly important after a disaster, when victims may be unsure of what to do next. By having OID feet on the ground immediately, we can quickly get them the help they need and serve residents of Oklahoma. Communication is in place and residents are better informed through the actions of Field Reps. Field Reps can provide expertise on insurance-related issues and implement a course of action to resolve a complaint, while also giving presentations and training community organizations and OID-licensed groups.

Assisting through Action

From severe weather recovery to best practices in Oklahoma insurance and preventing fraud, the OID is committed to outreach, education and disaster response. We provide help to all Oklahomans before, during and after a crisis. In order to achieve our outreach goals, we spring to action and host various events across the state to provide assistance and education.

National Tornado Summit

In March 2013, the second annual National Tornado Summit (NTS) was held at the Cox Convention Center in Oklahoma City. The three-day event was sponsored by the Oklahoma Insurance Department, Oklahoma Emergency Management, National Weather Center, National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration, Storm Prediction Center and the National Association of Insurance Commissioners (NAIC) and welcomed 850 attendees from 27 states and several countries. NTS attendees included regulators, insurance industry professionals, emergency managers and meteorologists who were able to hear about best practices in disaster management and ways to improve our nation's response to catastrophes. Experts shared information about how to prepare, respond and recover from the devastating effects of severe storms. Speakers included NAIC President and Louisiana Insurance Commissioner Jim Donelan, Storm Chaser Reed Timmer, Insurance Institute for Business and Home Safety's Dr. Tim Reinhold and many more. Next year's National Tornado Summit is scheduled for February 10-11, 2014.

Domestic Conference

The OID hosted more than 100 of Oklahoma's domestic insurance business leaders and elected officials during the second annual Domestic Conference. During the event, industry leaders received important financial information and provided feedback to elected officials on how to help foster a business environment that serves the best interests of Oklahoma's consumers and insurers.

Senior Fraud Conferences

The goal of the Senior Fraud Conferences each year is to teach Oklahoma seniors how to spot and prevent fraud. This year's seminar series featured presentations from our Anti-Fraud Unit, Medicare Assistance Program and many more. The half-day seminars were held in seven locations around the state where seniors learned about the latest scams as well as Medicare Fraud, Funeral Home Trust Fraud, Contractor Fraud, Postal Fraud and Investment Fraud. Participants also attended a "Fraud Fashion Show," featuring local law enforcement and utility workers in their official uniforms explaining what they do during a legitimate home visit.

Workers' Compensation Reform Seminars

The OID helped separate fact from fiction in regards to the new workers' compensation law by holding seminars to educate business owners, workers and insurance agents about the upcoming workers' compensation changes. During the statewide events, OID experts explained how the administrative system will work, the Oklahoma Option and the eligibility requirements for a qualified employer.

77 County Tour

Commissioner Doak has continued his pledge to visit all of Oklahoma's 77 counties every year he is in office. Stops on the tour include town halls, chambers of commerce, bail bond agencies, insurance agencies, funeral homes and more. Commissioner Doak's commitment to the 77 County Tour each year is evidence of the value he sees in staying in touch with the needs of Oklahomans and making sure they know the OID is available to help. The ambitious effort also reminds citizens that the OID works for all Oklahomans, from the panhandle to southeastern Oklahoma and all areas in-between.

Outreach

In addition to state fairs in Oklahoma City and Tulsa, the OID provides informational booths at city and county events year-round. Representatives from Consumer Assistance and other OID divisions answer questions, address concerns and offer educational materials at the events.

Continuing Education

The OID also organizes events that educate industry professionals. By attending designated OID events, licensed agents, brokers, bail bondsmen and funeral home operators can learn about the latest industry trends and satisfy state requirements for continuing education. This year also included continuing education workshops on the Affordable Care Act to help industry professionals navigate the upcoming changes in healthcare.

SUPPORT

"Oklahoma is no stranger to natural disasters. By offering the survivors our immediate support, we help them begin the recovery process."

-Insurance Commissioner John D. Doak

TORNADO OUTBREAK

May 2013 will go down as one of the worst months ever for severe weather in Oklahoma. The devastating tornadoes, hail storms and floods took 50 lives and caused billions of dollars in damages. While the road to recovery is a long one, the Oklahoma Insurance Department (OID) is committed to assisting survivors every step of the way.

OID's response to the storms was immediate. Anti-Fraud investigators responded to the disaster zones and installed yard signs that display our fraud reporting hotline. In the days and weeks after the tornadoes, OID investigators warned survivors about potential scams and worked with local law enforcement officials to discourage fraudulent activity.

The Anti-Fraud Unit also set up an Insurance Village at the First Baptist Church of Moore. The goal was to create a one-stop shop that enabled survivors to jumpstart the recovery process. Dozens of insurance companies responded, bringing RVs, trucks and tents to meet with affected policyholders. Services available at the village quickly expanded. Not only could storm survivors file their claim and meet with an adjuster, but they could also rent a car, get cash and even charge their cell phones. Members of the Consumer Assistance and Legal teams were also there to help with consumer questions.

The day after the Moore tornado, Commissioner Doak issued an alert requiring adjusters to obtain identification badges before entering the disaster zones. The goal was to protect consumers from potentially fraudulent salesmen, and also to make it easier for the adjusters to do their job. OID notified all the local law enforcement officers about the badges so they would allow adjusters through the safety checkpoints, a process adjusters told us worked extremely well.

Another important partnership during that time was with Oklahoma Banking Commissioner Mick Thompson. By sharing with him some of the financial challenges the survivors were facing, Commissioner Thompson was able to work with the state banks and financial institutions to reduce the hold time on insurance payments. Checks were processed quickly and without the traditional hold.

Once the survivors' immediate needs were met, OID began planning for long-term consumer assistance. Commissioner Doak, along with representatives from the Consumer Assistance, MAP, Anti-Fraud and Legal divisions took part in six town hall meetings across the state.

OID also held a Recovery Roundup 90 days after the Moore tornado to address any lingering insurance issues.

2,967 licenses were issued in the 12 business days after the Moore tornado. That's compared to 2,723 issued in the entire month of April. The spike is mostly attributed to out-of-state adjusters being granted emergency licenses to handle the increase in claims.

Calls to the consumer assistance division rose 59 percent in the two weeks after the Moore tornado.

As of Sept. 17th, 95,787 claims have been filed (related to the May tornadoes/storms) with insured losses topping $1.1 billion.

But our work isn't done. The recovery process is a long one and we are committed to supporting the survivors until the last claim is paid.

PROTECT

"The goal of the Anti-Fraud Unit is simple. We aim to protect Oklahomans. Whether it's from an unscrupulous businessman or a con man preying on storm victims, we will do everything we can to make sure justice is served."

- Rick Wagnon, Chief

ANTI-FRAUD UNIT

From investigating million-dollar insurance crimes to warning storm survivors about scammers, the Anti-Fraud Unit has one goal: to protect consumers. The experienced, CLEET-certified officers in the unit take their work very seriously and it shows. Just one year's worth of work led to the recovery of nearly a million dollars. The unit works with local, state and federal law enforcement agencies to investigate claims of embezzlement, exploitation, fraud and more.

The Anti-Fraud Unit also strives to stop crime before it occurs. By getting boots on the ground just hours after a natural disaster or other catastrophe, the unit sends a message to con artists: We're looking for you. The officers go door-to-door to warn survivors and teach them how to spot a scam artist. By the time fly-by-night home repair and roofing contractors arrive to set up shop, the Anti-Fraud Unit is ready to verify that the workers are licensed and insured.

Arrests Stemming from Anti-Fraud Investigations

Former Insurance Agent Sentenced for Wire Fraud

A former Bixby insurance agent was sentenced to ten months home confinement after pleading guilty to wire fraud that allowed him to illegally take commissions earned by other insurance agents.

Christopher M. Bland, 36, was indicted on 14 counts of wire fraud, 12 counts of making false statements to a financial institution and six counts of aggravated identity theft. As part of a plea agreement, he pleaded guilty to one count of wire fraud.

Bland, who owned and managed Business Consultants of South Tulsa, admitted to a scheme to defraud Colonial Life & Accident Insurance Co. and various insurance agents in his offices. He admitted opening bank accounts for agents without their permission, forging their signatures then taking their commissions.

Bland was also sentenced to five years of probation and ordered to pay $15,197 in restitution and a $5,000 fine. He is also expected to perform 80 hours of community service.

Luther Woman Charged with Embezzlement

A Luther woman is charged with embezzling $335,728 from Oklahoma County Farm Bureau. Bonnie Maloy, 32, is accused of using her position as office secretary to write herself fraudulent checks from the office account.

An Oklahoma Insurance Department (OID) investigation found that Maloy tried to cover up the theft by falsifying records. When the Oklahoma County Farm Bureau Board of Directors began to ask questions about the skyrocketing cost of office supplies, Maloy created fake invoices for the supplies, which initially matched up with office bookkeeping software. But when Maloy went on maternity leave, the board discovered the invoices were fake and that Maloy had been writing herself checks from the office account since September 2009.

The Oklahoma County District Attorney's Office charged Maloy with five counts of embezzlement and five counts of using a computer to commit a felony.

GUIDANCE

“Medicare can be confusing. We offer guidance to those navigating the process so they can feel confident in their health care decisions. Whether we’re comparing prescription drug plans or looking for ways to save you money, we’re here to help.”

-Ray Walker, Director of the Medicare Assistance Program

MEDICARE ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

The Oklahoma Insurance Department strives to protect our state’s senior population through counseling and education.

The MAP, formerly known as the Senior Health Insurance Counseling Program (SHIP), guides and counsels Oklahoma senior citizens in understanding and exercising their options under Medicare. MAP counselors provide unbiased assistance and advocacy relating to Medicare, Medicare supplements, Medicare Advantage, long term care, and other health-related coverage plans. This knowledge is especially important for Medicare beneficiaries, their representatives, or persons soon to be eligible for Medicare across the state of Oklahoma.

CONTACT:

Ray Walker, Director

ray.walker@oid.ok.gov | 1-800-763-2828

The Oklahoma Insurance Department offers several events throughout the year to help educate senior citizens including Senior Summits. During these statewide forums, Oklahoma's 600,000 Medicare beneficiaries can learn more about their options. During Medicare Open Enrollment last year, counselors helped more than 7,000 Medicare beneficiaries review their plans in order to get a better understanding of their Medicare coverage, which led to a savings of more than $2 million. Most beneficiaries saved between $300 and $500. Several individuals saved over $1,000.

The MAP also teaches Oklahoma seniors how to protect themselves from Medicare and Medicaid fraud, abuse and waste. The program is a partnership between Oklahoma and the Senior Medicare Patrol (SMP) program at the Administration for Community Living to create a volunteer-driven program that increases public awareness. SMP is a community-based effort that recruits and trains volunteers to educate the public about Medicare fraud, waste, and abuse, and how to report it. The division provides local programs and materials on how to read a Medicare Summary Notice and how to detect and report discrepancies.

Throughout the year, the Oklahoma Insurance Department holds a series of Senior Fraud Conferences across the state. These educational events teach Oklahomans how to spot, avoid and fight fraud. Seniors learn about the latest scams from an array of topics including: Medicare Fraud, Funeral Home Trust Fraud, Contractor Fraud, Postal Fraud and Investment Fraud. Participants are taught how to spot an imposter during a "Fraud Fashion Show." The show features local law enforcement officers, utility and city workers in their official uniforms explaining what they do during a legitimate home visit. In 2013, nearly 500 people attended the conferences.

IMPROVE

“By working with fire departments across the state to improve their ISO ratings, we help communities become safer. Our efforts can also lead to lower premiums for homeowners’ insurance policies.”

-Kevin Stoneking, ISO Coordinator

ISO REVIEW

The ISO Review Program allows the Oklahoma Insurance Department (OID) to work with fire departments to better protect communities and reduce insurance rates statewide.

The Insurance Services Office (ISO) is a private entity that evaluates the protection resources of local fire districts then assigns the district a Public Protection Classification from 1 to 10.

Class 1 generally represents superior property fire protection, while Class 10 indicates that the area’s fire-suppression program doesn’t meet ISO’s minimum criteria.

More than half of Oklahoma’s 1,596 fire districts have ISO classifications of 9 or 10.

Many insurance companies use the ISO rating system to help establish fair premiums for home insurance. With each improved rating of the fire response district, there is potential for lower insurance rates and improved fire protection and safety for those in that district.

Because of that potential savings, OID created the ISO Review Program. The goal was to reach out to fire departments and teach them how to improve their ISO classification. The success was immediate and dramatic. ISO Coordinators met with 64 departments in the first year of the program. The potential insurance savings for consumers statewide totaled $6,639,468.

After a 27-year career with the Oklahoma City Fire Department, Kevin Stoneking was ready for a new opportunity. He found it at the Oklahoma Insurance Department. Jim Arnold brings more than 30 years of fire service experience to the ISO Review Program. He's been a fire marshal, a fire chief and most recently, an ISO Field Representative. His background in facilitating ISO ratings is a true benefit to fire departments across our state.

IMPACT

“Our legislative efforts are extremely important because they allow us to have a positive impact on the lives of all Oklahomans.”

-Dr. Rick Farmer, Deputy Commissioner of Government Affairs, Public Policy and Communications

2013 LEGISLATIVE ACCOMPLISHMENTS

Every legislative session, OID works with state lawmakers to craft bills that benefit consumers and businesses. For OID, 2013 was another successful year at the Capitol. Gov. Mary Fallin signed the following bills into law.

- House Bill 1792 allows law enforcement to remove the tags from uninsured vehicles and creates a temporary insurance plan for those untagged vehicles. Offenders must obtain auto insurance and pay all the necessary fees and fines before reclaiming their tag.
- House Bill 1108 modernizes the Oklahoma Captive Insurance law. Oklahoma may now be the most attractive onshore state in which to form a captive.
- Senate Bill 692 requires inter-local insurance pools to file audited financial statements with the Oklahoma Insurance Department. The law aims to protect school districts and other local jurisdictions from financial loss.

Commissioner Doak provided expert input on House Bill 1062, which creates an administrative system for Workers' Compensation claims. He also implemented a 77-county tour on Workers' Compensation issues which helped fuel reform efforts.

The OID was also pleased with the passage of the Insurance Consumer Bill of Rights Resolution. It clarifies for consumers the insurance rights afforded them by the Legislature and Oklahoma law.
